

1. Put the articles where necessary:

1. Have you ever heard her telling ... lie?
2. He never speaks in... whisper.
3. He always shouts at ... top of his voice.
4. I can't say there are many dictionaries in the library but there are ... few.
5. It's twelve o'clock. Let's have ... break.
6. Did you have ... good time at ... party? – Rather.
7. Jane is always in ... hurry.
8. I've been looking for ... textbook for two weeks already. But I haven't found it yet. What ... shame!
9. On my way ... home I saw ... little kitten.
10. It's eleven p. m. Let's go ... home.
11. Yesterday Nick was taken to ... hospital.
12. ... hospital where Dr. Robson works is ... tall grey building situated near ... church.
13. My little cat is on ... bed.
14. All little children should go to ... bed not later than at nine o'clock in the evening.
15. We went to ... restaurant yesterday and I ordered ... chicken and ... glass of orange juice.
16. Put some sugar in ... coffee. It tastes bitter.
17. Name three objects made of ... glass.
18. I never drink ... instant coffee, only ... real coffee.
19. The prisoner was given only ... bread and ... water.
20. ... water tastes very unusual. It is not ... mineral water, is it?
21. What ... metal is the ring made of? Is it ... gold or ... bronze?
22. Bronze is ... hard metal made of ... copper and ... tin.
23. ... bag is made of ... paper.
24. Can we have two teas and ... coffee, please?
25. Have you brought ... new iron, Linda?
26. I've brought ... paper for you, Granny. There is a TV program in it.
27. We need more ... lemon for ... pie.
28. Is it ... orange or ... lemon?
29. "Perrier" is ... mineral water.
30. Yesterday John painted ... picture. John is seven-year-old-boy. He is ... student of Hill School. Hill School is ... old school. They teach ... future painters there. John is ... good student. Everybody says he will make ... good painter.
31. ... lunch was excellent, but I noticed that Mary ate very little.
32. He followed her into ... front room, where ... supper had been cleared from ... table.
33. "You sit down," she said. "I'll cook you ... big breakfast."
34. ... night was cloudy and still very dark.
35. ... morning was perfect but there was ... suggestion of ... approaching storm in ... air.
36. It was ... worse-than-usual night.
37. Soon he bought himself ... house on ... hills in Java and married ... pretty little Javanese.
38. I think it is ... place I will choose.
39. We went to ... theatre last night and saw Flames. It was ... wonderful play.